

CONRAD

MALDIVES
RANGALI ISLAND

the luxury of being yourself

Villas & Suites

Conrad Maldives Rangali Island

From the Spa Retreat and Beach Villas on Rangalifinolhu Island to the many different styles of Water Villas on Rangali Island, Conrad Maldives offers the ultimate in resort accommodation across two islands, allowing guests to enjoy a variety of different holiday experiences without ever leaving the resort.

Each of the 150 villas reflects the resort's contemporary and laid-back style, offering luxurious modern facilities in an indoor-outdoor living space that sits in perfect natural harmony with the Maldivian environment.

In all villas, the natural setting is complemented by the latest in modern design and amenities including a private terrace with wooden sun loungers, umbrella, and coffee table, flatscreen satellite TV, CD stereo with iPod connectors, DVD player, Nespresso tea/coffee machine, air conditioning and ceiling fan, refrigerated mini bar and IDD telephones. Toiletries are by Bulgari or Molton Brown.

Awards:

- "Maldives' Leading Water Villas" - World Travel Awards, September 2011
- "The Best Suites in the World" - VIP Traveller Magazine Germany, September 2011
- "Maldives' Leading Spa Resort" - World Travel Awards, September 2011
- "Hideaway of the Year" - Hideaways Magazine, Germany. April 2011
- 'Best Hotels by the Sea' - www.hotels.com, February 2011
- "10 Best Hotels in the World" - Welt Am Sonntag Newspaper, Germany, December 2011

Rangali finolhu Island

Rangalifinolhu Island (the main island) is home to some of the country's most luxurious and spacious Beach Villas, designed by Thai architect Lek Bunnang to provide the ultimate in outdoor living, perfectly harmonised with contemporary Maldivian style. These villas combine elements of local style such as thatched roofs and abundant greenery with super chic contemporary styling.

- 35 Beach Villas
- 42 Deluxe Beach Villas
- 2 Junior Beach Suites
- 2 Beach Suites
- 21 Retreat Water Villas

Rangali Island

Rangali Island offers a superb choice of 50 villas in six different categories, all set on stilts over the lagoon. Traditional wooden exteriors and thatched roofs house contemporary and stylish furnishings that evoke the best of the tropics. An 'Island Host' service ensures guests a tailor-made dream holiday.

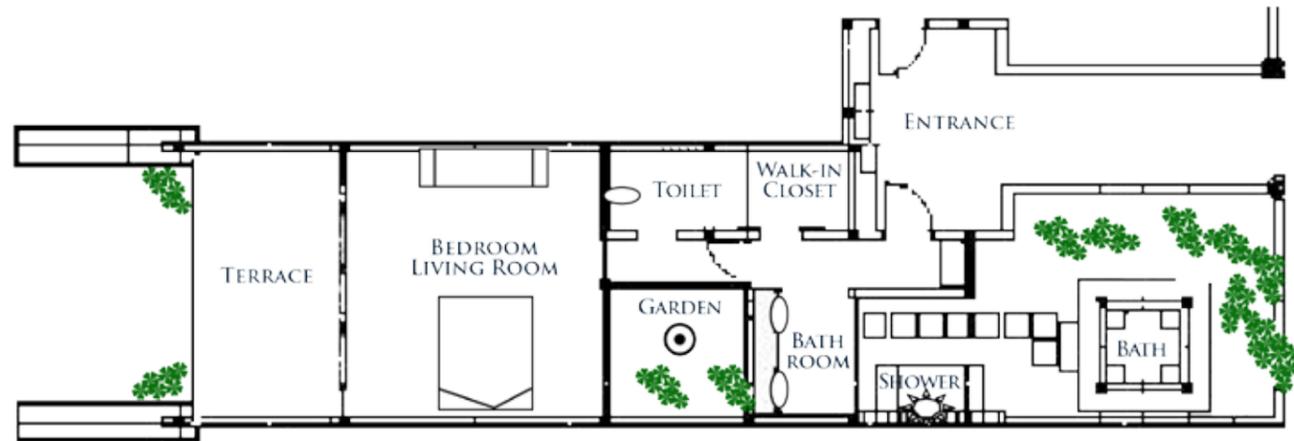

- 28 Water Villas
- 12 Superior Water Villas
- 6 Deluxe Water Villas
- 2 Premier Water Villas
- 1 Premier Water Suite
- 2 Sunset Water Villas

Beach Villas

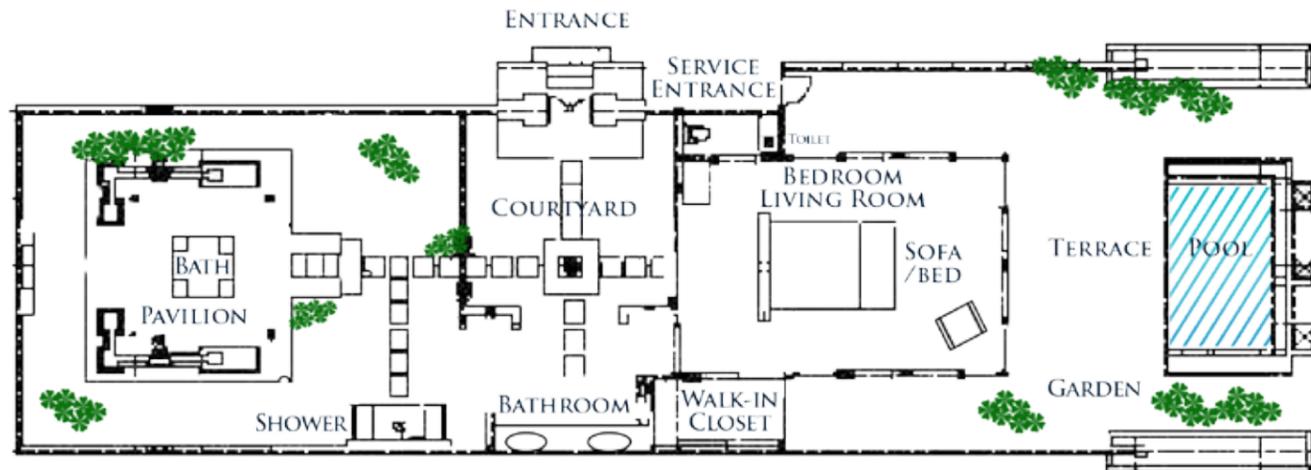

Set on the beach, in all 35 Beach Villas (up to 150m²) a glass-walled bedroom opens onto a terrace and private garden which leads to the beach, while to the rear a fountain courtyard is part of the secluded open-air garden-bathroom with a thatched-roof bathing pavilion featuring an outsized bathtub and romantic mood lighting.

11 interconnecting villas allow flexible accommodation options for families or friends travelling together.

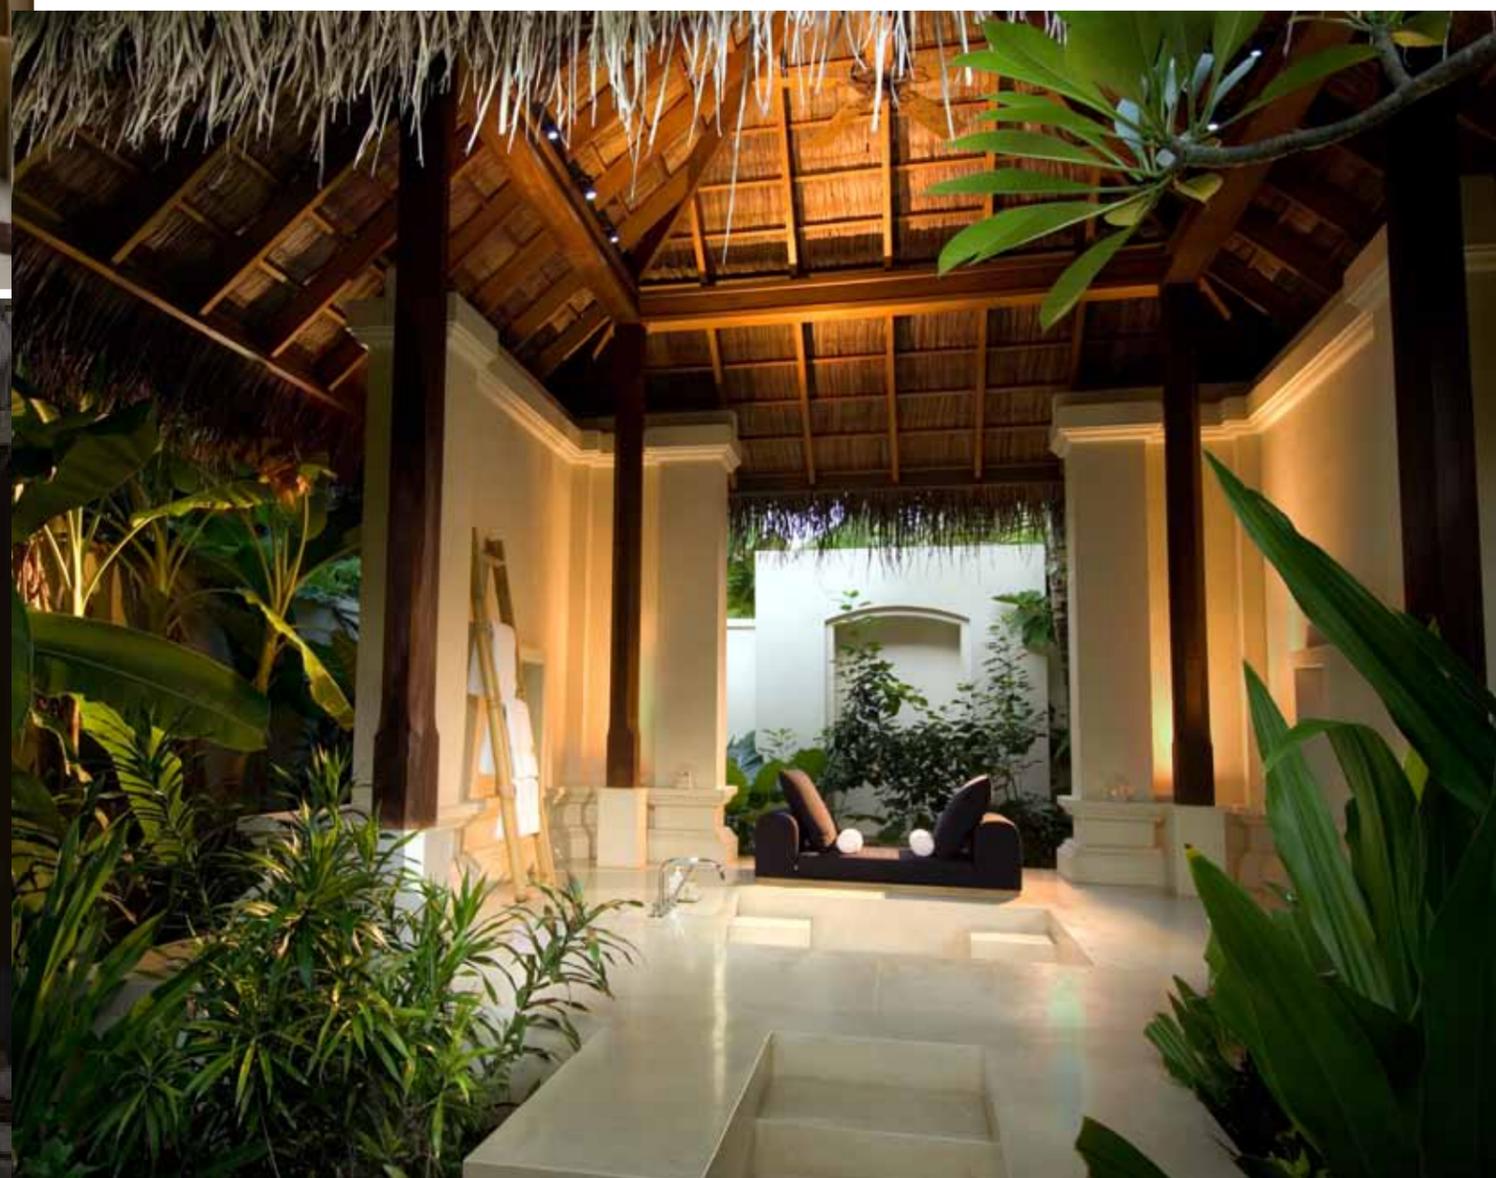

Deluxe Beach Villas

An abundance of space (up to 300m²) is the hallmark of the 42 Deluxe Beach Villas where guests enjoy absolute comfort in spacious bedrooms with floor-to-ceiling windows on all four sides that can be fully opened to bring the natural beauty of the Maldives into the room. A large private garden and plunge pool, just steps from the beach and elegantly screened by exotic tropical foliage, round out the experience. The open-air garden-bathroom is a pleasure of senses from the scent of frangipani flowers to the playful tinkle of the fountain. The enormous bathing pavilion calls out for candles, flower petals and sumptuous oils which can be ordered from the in-villa bath menu.

Junior Beach Suites

Built in November 2011, the two Junior Beach Suites (up to 368m²) comprise a Deluxe Beach Villa with the addition of a large living room with floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the suite's pool and garden. They offer a taste of the suite life with their spacious light-filled glass-enclosed living room adjoining the large bedroom which in turn opens onto an open air-garden bathroom. The Junior Beach Suites feature a private plunge pool set in its own garden area just steps from the beach. The west-facing Junior Beach Suite offers views of spectacular Maldivian sunsets while the suite on the east side of the island is an easy paddle to the coral reef.

Beach Suites

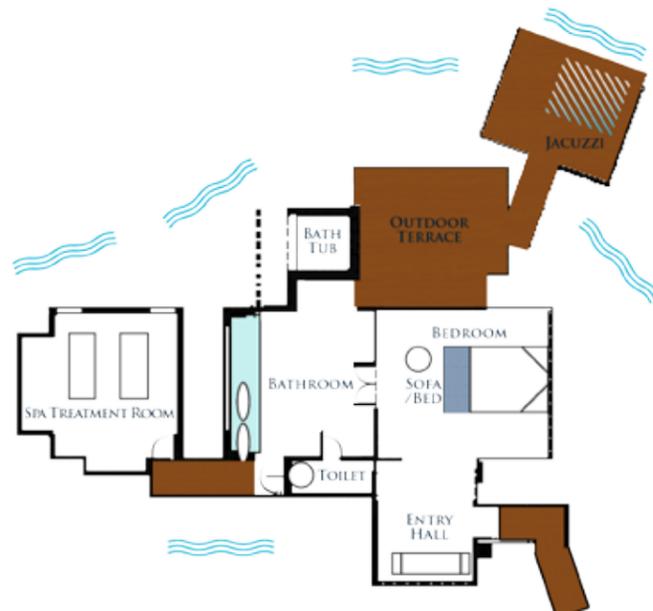

Created in November 2011 both of the two-bedroomed Beach Suites (up to 668m²) offer prime beachfront living on the main island, one facing the sunrise and one the sunset. Comprising a Junior Beach Suite and Deluxe Beach Villa, the luxurious suites include two private plunge pools set in landscaped gardens to give the luxurious options of chilling out in the pool just steps from the comfort of the villa. Each suite has a glorious sun-filled living room with floor-to-ceiling windows and two outdoor garden-bathrooms with a courtyard, fountain, bathing pavilion, open-air shower, and all the amenities needed to enjoy the comfort and style a vacation destination as unique as the Maldives has to offer.

The villas have their own private gardens filled with lush foliage native to the Maldives where guests can relax on their own private veranda or pool. On the other side of this exotic landscaping are the beach and the turquoise waters of the ocean. Guests staying in a Beach Suite enjoy the services of a private Island Host.

Retreat Water Villas

The 21 luxurious Retreat Water Villas (150m²) are set on stilts in a private part of the resort's lagoon and offer an over-water home-from-home designed for pure relaxation of mind, body and soul. Clustered around the Spa Retreat – one of three spas at the resort – each villa is the perfect escape from the outside world and has a separate spa treatment room that incorporates two massage beds, a mini gym and medicine ball. Their spacious design blends contemporary Maldivian style in a natural harmony of wooden interiors and a breezy indoor-outdoor feel. The Indian Ocean is always in view allowing guests to feel at one with nature. The bathrooms large windows can be fully opened to create a full 'outdoor effect'. Spa-themed mini-bars encourage personal pampering with organic foods and juices. With ocean-views from all around as well as a private and quiet environment away from the rest of the resort, guests can enjoy personal 'me time' to relax, and doze off to the gentle lapping of the waves below. Each private sundeck has a large Jacuzzi and steps leading directly into the lagoon.

WaterVilla

The Water Villas (86m²) were completely rebuilt in November 2011 and boast ocean view baths and private sun terraces with steps into the lagoon, a private plunge pool with water jets and a heavenly contemporary setting. The highlight of the architecture is the glass desk which is set over glass panels giving the impression that it is floating over the water below. The décor of the villas features elegant natural tones of wood and soft whites with gentle shades of lavender and green. Understated, recessed lighting adds to the contemporary feel.

Each villa boasts a private sundeck with wooden sun loungers, umbrella and plunge pool making this an ideal spot for private sun bathing during the day, or star gazing at night. Steps leading from the sundeck into the welcoming waters of the lagoon below allow endless swimming and snorkeling options right in front of the villa.

Superior Water Villa

The Superior Water Villas (76m²) offer guests all the pleasures of a Water Villa in still more luxurious surroundings with a bed that faces directly to the ocean and a Jacuzzi on the sun deck. All Superior Water Villas face the sunset making a sundowner cocktail or two in the evenings an absolute must.

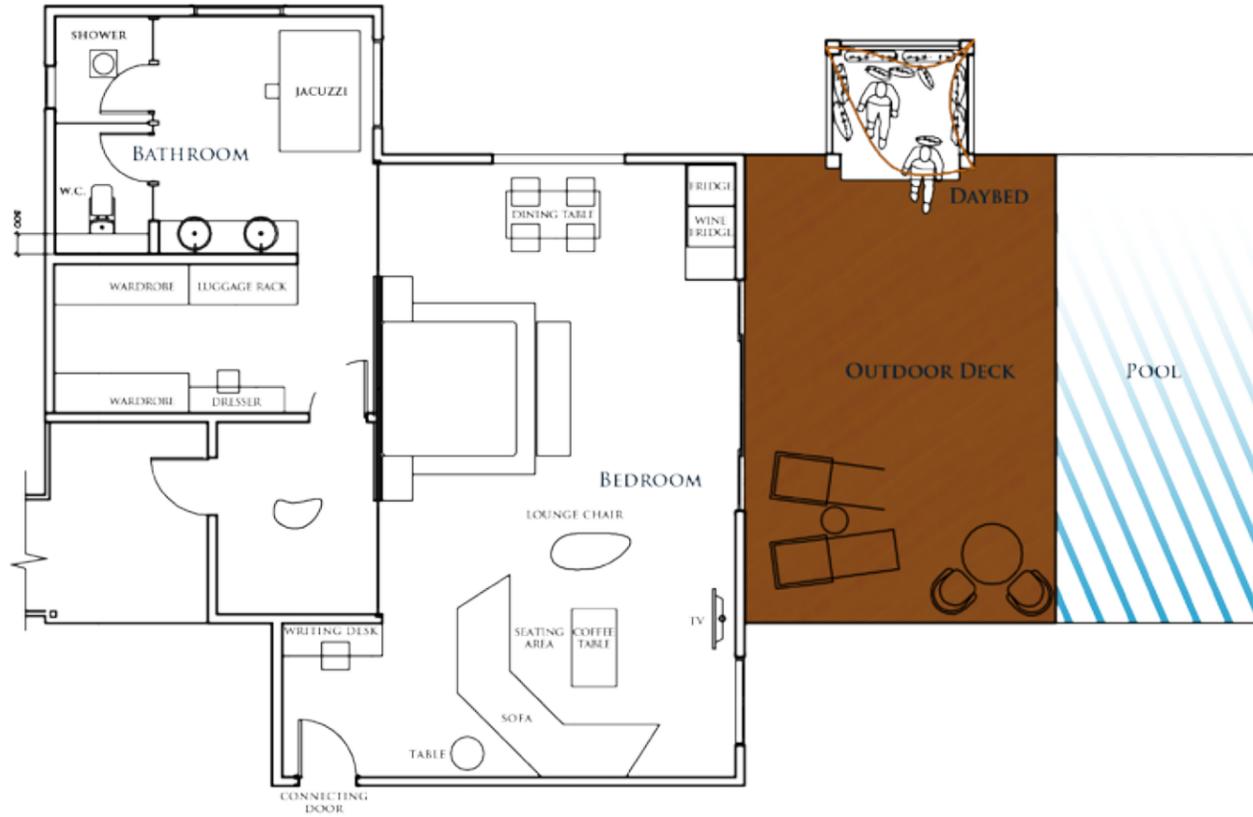

Deluxe Water Villa

All Deluxe Water Villas (115m²) face the sunset and offer a further taste of luxury with a large outdoor Jacuzzi on the private deck, a romantic four-poster bed and spacious living area creating the perfect retreat. The large bedrooms offer many different lighting features and options while the 42" LC D TV with DVD player and iPod hookup with surround sound provide the ultimate in audio and video entertainment that can be enjoyed both in the villa, or outside on the veranda.

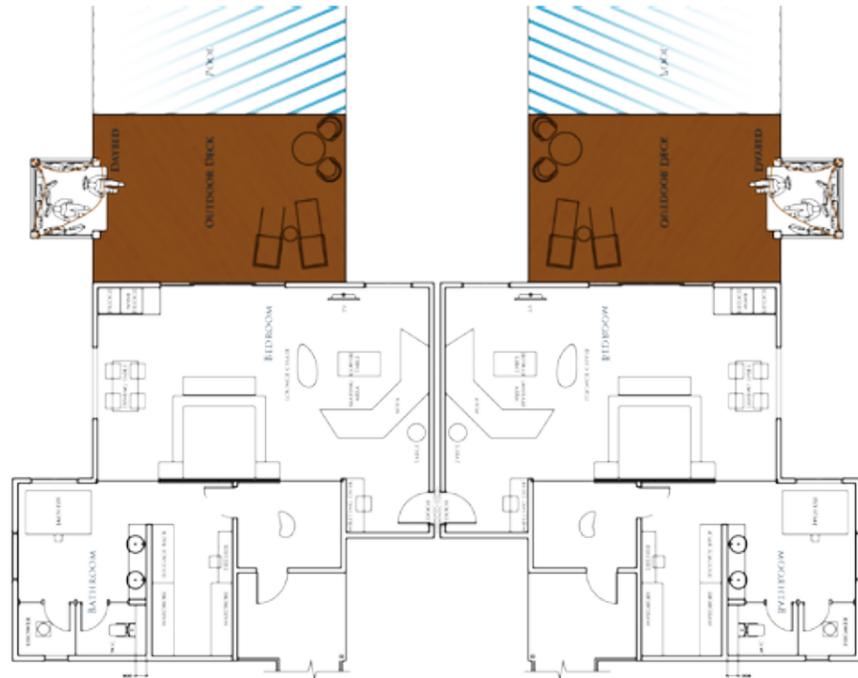

Premier Water Villa

The two Premier Water Villas (152m²) were built for design lovers and feature a host of high-tech gadgets such as a 50-inch plasma screen TV, designer furniture, and outdoor sundeck with a large infinity-edged pool. Inside, the mood is contemporary chic with whitewashed walls and sloping ceilings showcasing a great selection of artworks by Maldivian artist Eagan Badeeu.

Premier Water Suite

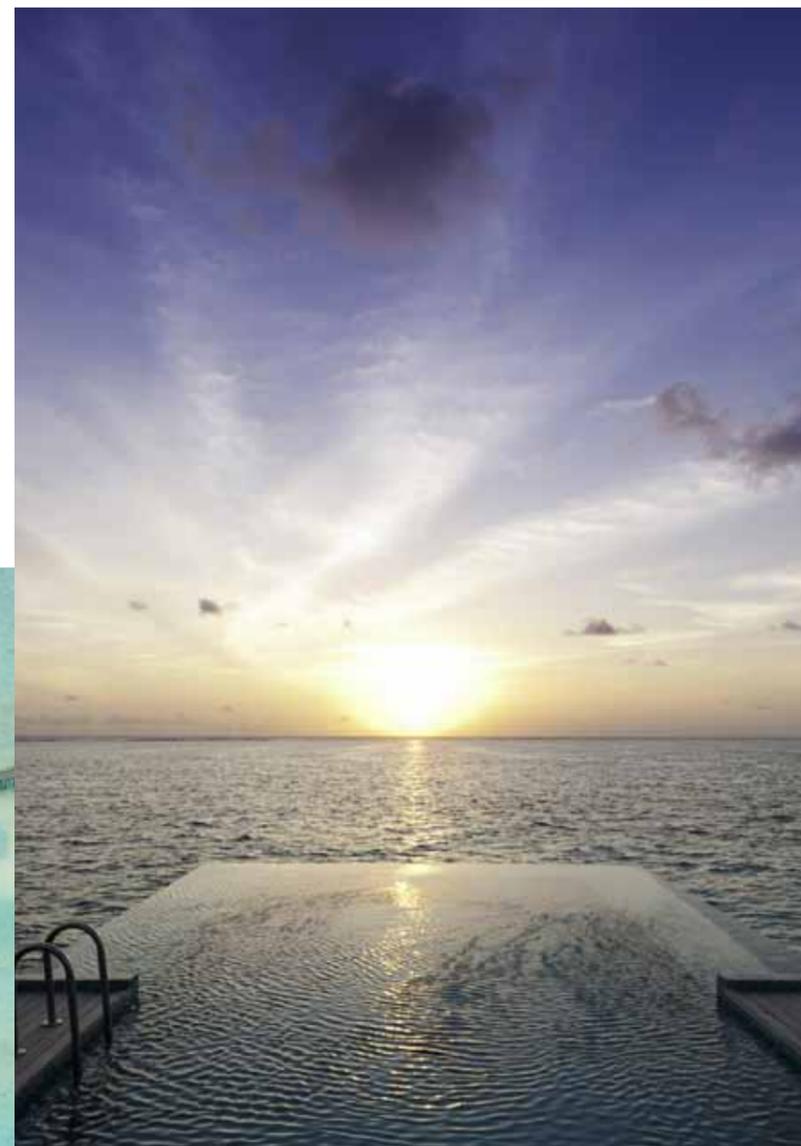

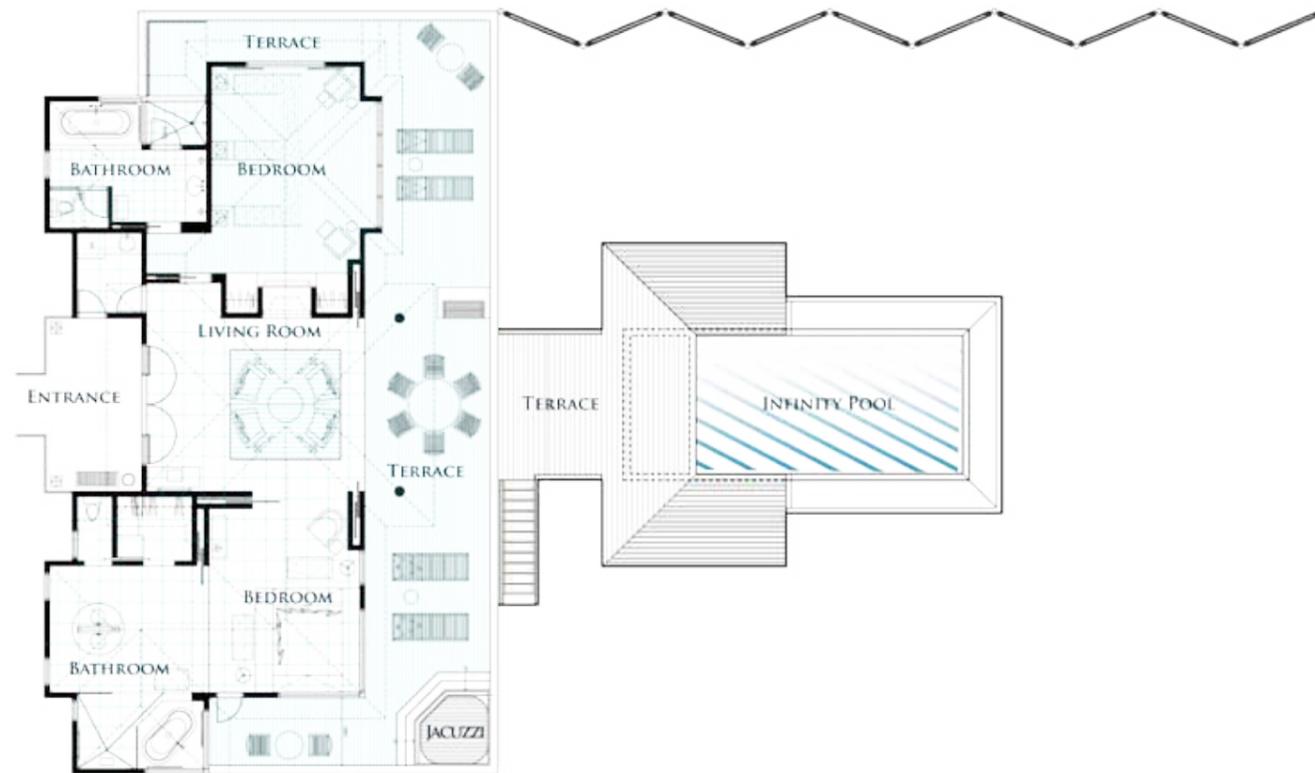

Comprising two Premier Water Villas, the Premier Water Suite (304m²) is an outstanding two-bedroom hideaway on stilts above the lagoon with two over-water swimming pools set on a spacious wooden deck that faces west to showcase the dramatic Maldivian sunsets. Special features include two large bathrooms, each with a sunken Jacuzzi, as well as butler service and an inviting open-plan living area with floor-to-ceiling windows. Bedecked with the latest designer touches such as 50-inch plasma screen TV, beds that appear to 'float' above the floor and stunning raised chill out beds over the water on the extensive sun deck, this contemporary haven offers exclusivity and luxury on a par with the best in the world. Guests staying in the Premier Water Suite enjoy the services of a private Island Host.

Sunset Water Villa

The ultimate in island luxury is found in the two stunning Sunset Water Villas (452m²), set in their own private area of the lagoon and reached by jetboat or private walkway. Home to royalty, celebrities and the world's top sport stars, the villas are located at the very tip of Rangali Island. Glass-floors in the living room provide spectacular views of the marine life below, whilst a round bed rotates 270 degrees to follow the breathtaking sunsets. If the undersea life isn't enough entertainment, each villa has flat screens and satellite TV throughout, DVD and CD players, Bose sound system and state-of-the-art touch-screen computers.

A second king-sized bedroom with a flat-screen TV which descends from the bedroom ceiling, two large marble bathrooms with walk-in wardrobes and ocean-view circular bathtubs, plus a luxurious outdoor Jacuzzi and a private, over-water, chromotherapy infinity swimming pool, are just a selection of the extravagant touches which make the Sunset Water Villas the ultimate Maldivian experience. This villa also comes with kitchenette and butler service 24 hours a day.

CONRAD®

MALDIVES
RANGALI ISLAND