The Spa respects the Seven Colours philosophy, based on a balanced interaction between energies and colours. The concept is a synthesis of age-old treatments based on the chakras, the stimulation of the senses and the beneficial effects of Nature, for the renewed harmony of body and soul.

The therapists take great care to meet specific needs with personalised treatments linked to the Seven Colours product range, which are made from the latest organic ingredients found in the Indian Ocean region. Relaxation, cleansing, stimulation, and body and facial treatments for real well-being await you, alone or as a couple. The area has a hammam as well as a double treatment room.

Boutik Hotel Rodrigues

Factsheet

The island of Rodrigues leaves an indelible impression on visitors. It has another-worldly feel to it and has managed to retain a life-style of earlier, less hectic times.

Tekoma is an invitation to be carried away by the scenery around the hotel, its fine sandy beach, the elegance of its Creole architecture, the little paths near the hotel which lead to Trou d'Argent, the island's unspoilt beauty and the kindness of its inhabitants.

TRIMETYS  HOTELS

Tekoma Boutik Hotel is located at Anse Ally, far from other dwellings. This is perhaps where time has followed the French poet Lamartine's injunction, Oh Time, suspend your flight! It is a cosy four-star retreat with everything you need for an exceptional holiday: 15 comfortable and chic bedrooms, a Creole cuisine, a beach bar, a garden area to relax in where the air is filled with the sweet scents of the Tropics, a swimming pool and a crystal-clear lagoon. It is a boutique hotel that reveals its deep attachment to Rodrigues in its architecture, its choice of natural materials and the warm way the hotel team welcomes guests. Indeed, the team positively enjoys informing guests of the best walks and talking about the people of Rodrigues and the local culture,

Uncontrolled tourism would endanger what is best about Rodrigues – its beauty and its authenticity. The Tekoma has therefore taken great care over its development, recycling waste water, using desalinated water, having no boat house (rather using existing resources) and protecting endangered sea species by not including them on its menu. It sources local agricultural produce (invariably organic in Rodrigues) and the fish are brought in by neighbourhood fishermen. Local materials have been used in the buildings and staff

Appealing in many ways

- An exceptional site, right on the seafront, alongside the beautiful beach at Anse Ally
- 15 minutes on foot from the start of the walk that leads to Trou d'Argent, a nature reserve with a small beach tucked away between the cliffs known as Beach Rock
- Traditional Rodriguan Creole-style architecture
- Its design based on environmentally-sustainable concepts
- Spa Bleu, in association with the Mauritian Seven Colours brand
- A brand-new and genuinely 4-star hotel.

Main building

From its cliff-top vantage point, the building stands majestically above the bedrooms and looks out on to the swimming pool and the sea. The large openings provide a wonderful atmosphere with plenty of light and marvellous views.

There is a delightful inner garden next to the restaurant, sheltered from the wind – a great place in which to relax!

Accommodation

Tekoma has 9 Lagoon rooms and 6 Garden rooms, each 65 m² (700 sq ft), including 2 rooms that can interconnect. Lagoon rooms can accommodate up to a maximum of 2 adults and 1 baby or infant.

Rooms combine comfort with peace and quiet, and each has a terrace with sea view. In the morning, guests can watch fishermen setting off in their pirogues (local boats). Windows have been designed to take advantage of the greenery and the blue of the lagoon, which has inspired the décor: bright turquoise contrasting with shades of sand, brown and slate, and natural wood. The pure clean lines of solid-teak furniture and the understated style give rooms an exceptionally elegant and harmonious feel.

Rooms have en-suite facilities with a walk-in shower and outdoor bath, dressing area, individually controlled air-conditioning, 32" LCD televisions with satellite channels, international direct dialling, internet access, mini-bar and a safe. There are also hairdryers in the bathrooms and razor sockets.

The reception desk is manned from 7.30 a.m. to 10.30 p.m. and a night watchman available thereafter.

Check-in: Rooms are available from 2 p.m. onwards.

Check-out: Rooms should be freed by 12 noon. Special rates are available for those who wish to vacate their rooms later in the day.
