SIGHTSEEING

Mauritius offers a range of excursions and sightseeing options including trips to the north and south of the island, visits of colonial houses, trips to the horse races and nature and leisure parks.

“Sightseeing, an activity that delights the truly idle because it seems so much like scholarship, gawping and eavesdropping on antiquity, flattering oneself with the notion that one is discovering the past when really one is inventing it, using a guidebook as a scenario of swift notations.

~ Paul Theroux

South Trip of the Island - Option 1

❖ South Trip A

- ❖ Visit of Mauritius Glass Gallery, Phoenix - all the products from the Mauritius Glass Gallery are made from recycled glass. They use mainly coke bottles, but are starting to incorporate other bottles too in various ways - Optional. Entrance fee - Rs. 100 per person.
- ❖ Shopping in Floreal & Curepipe - factory outlets, ship models and diamond cutting - Optional.
- ❖ Trou Aux Cerfs - an extinct volcanic crater some 100m deep and 1km in circumference. The bowl is heavily wooded and from the road around the rim (a favourite spot for joggers and walkers) you get lovely views of the Mauritian plateau.
- ❖ Grand Bassin - one of the island's two natural lakes. It rests in the crater of an extinct volcano and is a place of pilgrimage for a large number of Mauritians of Hindu faith, especially on the occasion of Maha Shivaratree.
- ❖ Black River Gorges - This 6,574 hectare park, proclaimed in 1994, protects much of the remaining native forests of Mauritius and provides opportunities for the visitor to enjoy spectacular natural scenery and some of the unique endemic plants and bird life. There are also a number of long walking trails across the region, including one to the island's highest point, Black River Peak at 828 metres.
- ❖ Alexandra waterfalls viewpoint, Black River.
- ❖ Lunch in Chamarel - Varangue sur Morne (At additional cost).
- ❖ Chamarel - Seven Coloured Earth, Waterfalls and Rhumerie - a mound of undulating land stretching in contrasting layers of colour, and the patches of blue, green, red and yellow earth are to be the result of weathering. The nearby Chamarel waterfall emerges from the moors and primeval vegetation and is very beautiful. Finish with an optional visit of the Rhumerie and tasting of indigenous rum. Entrance fee - Chamarel - Rs. 200 per person/ Rhumerie - Rs. 350 per person.
- ❖ Curious Corner, Chamarel - World of illusion - Optional. Entrance fee - Rs. 275 per person.
- ❖ Return to the resort via the scenic coastal road of Mauritius.
- ❖ Full day trip - 09h00 to 17h00.
- ❖ BMW hotel cars - Rs. 11,115.
- ❖ Private taxi - Rs. 3,900.

South Trip of the Island - Option 2

❖ South Trip B

- ❖ Trou Aux Cerfs - an extinct volcanic crater some 100m deep and 1km in circumference. The bowl is heavily wooded and from the road around the rim (a favourite spot for joggers and walkers) you get lovely views of the Mauritian plateau.
- ❖ Grand Bassin - one of the island's two natural lakes. It rests in the crater of an extinct volcano and is a place of pilgrimage for a large number of Mauritians of Hindu faith, especially on the occasion of Maha Shivaratree.
- ❖ Visit of tea plantation and Bois Chéri tea factory - the first tea plantation in Mauritius which dates back to 1892. Discover the history, stories and tales of the Bois Chéri and the importance of tea productions in Mauritius. You also have a great panoramic view of the south of the island. Nowadays, Bois Chéri produces a new range of flavored teas, green teas and herbal teas. You may taste them during your visit. Entrance fee - Rs. 500 per person.
- ❖ Lunch at either Bois Cheri, Domaine du St. Aubin or Vanilla Crocodile park (At additional cost).
- ❖ Domain du St. Aubin - A planter's lodge built in 1819, the site consists of a sugarcane, an anthurium flowers and a vanilla plantation plus an old colonial mansion - Optional. Entrance fee - Rs. 500 per person.
- ❖ Vanilla nature park - The crocodile & giant tortoises park which is home to various species of animals, reptiles and plants is set in a beautiful rain forested valley with natural freshwater springs, full of fish. A must see is the park rare collection of butterflies and other brightly-colored insects (with about 23 000 species), which is one of the most fascinating in the world. Entrance fee - Rs. 395 per person.
- ❖ Gris Gris - The most southerly point of mainland Mauritius. There are no reefs here to protect the coast from the strong waves of the Indian Ocean. The sea storms against the coast with all its might, offering a total contrast to the other calm lagoons. A short walking trail beginning behind the car park leads to "la roche qui pleure" (the Weeping Rock), where the waves hit the rocks and are thrown back into the sea with equal force.
- ❖ Return to the resort via the highway.
- ❖ Full day trip - 09h00 to 17h00.
