

Open Doors, Open Hearts

Shinta Mani Angkor, an upscale boutique property created by acclaimed architect Bill Bensley, showcases 39 contemporary designed rooms and public spaces in a Khmer inspired design. This exceptional hotel enjoys a tranquil and leafy setting within the French Quarter of Siem Reap.

Shinta Mani Angkor seduces with soft lighting, fragrant scents and mod-Cambodian design, care of US interiors whizz Bill Bensley. Mission out on tailored tours to Angkor's dazzling temples, then retreat to your spacious accommodation or savor the refreshing tropical pool, soothing spa and dreamy swing-seat dining.

Shinta Mani with a culture of 'Open Doors, Open Hearts' reflects our commitment to responsible tourism. We hope that during your visit you will open your heart to the beauty of the Kingdom of Cambodia, its gentle people and its fascinating culture.

At Shinta Mani Angkor we are proud to support the less fortunate in our community – especially through the education and development of young adults. Your stay will help us to achieve our goal of creating a lasting and positive impact and to ensuring a bright future for the people of Cambodia.

A percentage of your daily room rate will be contributed to the Shinta Mani Foundation to support their activities.

Please visit The Development Centre during your stay at Shinta Mani or ask our team how you can make a difference. Log on to <http://shintamani.com/foundation.php> for more information.
