TEREMOANA POOL VILLA

WHEN CULTURE MEETS LUXURY

Discover the finest luxury overwater experience in Bora Bora.

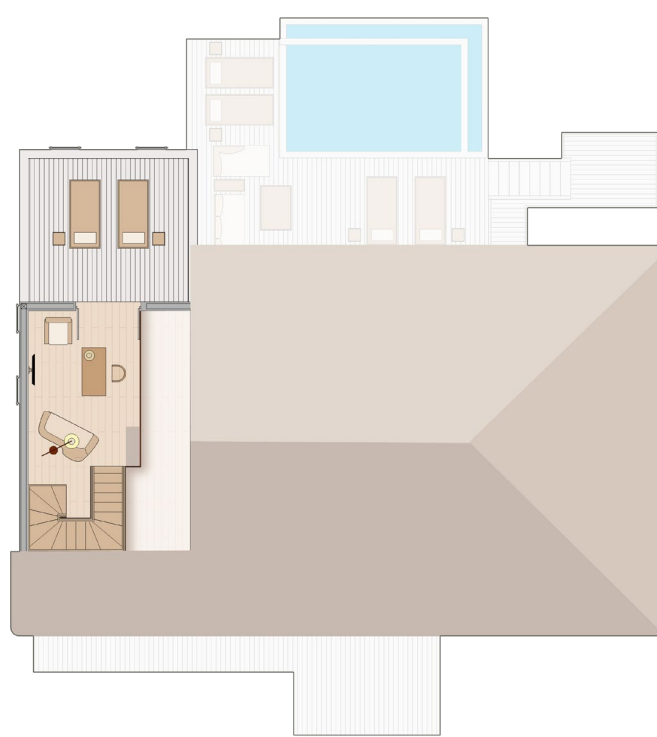

The Teremoana Pool Villa provides stunning views of Mt. Otemanu and is perfect for those seeking privacy. The name Teremoana is of Polynesian origin and means «High seas navigator.» The story of ancestral Polynesian navigation knowledge is deeply connected with the design of the villa. Its architect integrated many design elements supporting this story and bringing our customers into an authentic journey.

Artisans and artists worked closely together to bring to life this story with:

- Carved wood panel wall showcasing a traditional navigation map used by ancestral Polynesians to navigate with stars and swell;
- Light fixture design inspired by the Polynesian fish trap;
- Handmade circular fish in metal wall art.

This overwater villa measures 322 square meters (3,465 square feet), including the 108-square-metre (1,162-square-foot) terrace areas. The private, outdoor pool is 19 square metres (205 square feet) and is adjacent to the spacious shaded terrace and sundeck with sun loungers for sun bathing and direct access into the lagoon. A freshwater shower is also located on the sundeck.

The villa is modern and luxurious and features sleek, contemporary décor with traditional Polynesian design touches. Its location at pontoon's end, facing Mt. Otemanu, is perfect for those who seek privacy. Each villa boasts an expansive living room, office, and dining table for six.

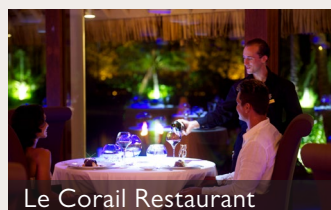

Two master bedrooms, each with a plush king-size bed (or twin beds on request) face a large picture window and overlook the lagoon and the island. The villa has two bathrooms which each feature a separate shower and double bathtub, double washbasin and complimentary range of luxury amenities. Each bathtub faces a picture window for enjoying the incomparable views while soaking in the tub.
